It consists of a gasoline engine and force pump, mounted on a wagon, and will spray four trees at a time and saves about one-half of the spray material that has heretofore taken to do the same amount of work. It does the work in a thorough manner and is a terror to the many insects that infest citrus trees.

A FAMILY REMEDY.

Pe-ru-na Used in Thousands of Homes.

Ex-Governor Isaac Sharp.

ISAAC SHARP, ex-Governor of Kansas, in a letter from 1227 I St., N. E., Washington, D. C., writes:

"I can earnestly recommend your Peruna as an excellent tonic. Its reputation as a cure for catarrh is firmly established by my friends, who have been benefited by its use, and the public should know its great curative qualities."—Isaac Sharp.

Mr. James Currie, a prominent merchant of Montreal, Can., writes from 1806 Notre Dame St., as follows:

"I have used your Peruna for catarrh and find it an excellent remedy for coughs and colds."—James Currie.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address: Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanatorium, Columbus, O.

Improvement Association Meets.

Cairo, Ill., Nov. 17.—At the meeting of the Ohio Valley Improvement association today a memorial to the late Captain John F. Dravo, of Pittsburgh, was presented. The afternoon session will be given up to the national waterways convention discussion with addresses by Thomas Wilkinson, president of the Upper Mississippi River Improvement association, and John A. Fox, secretary of the St. Francis River Improvement association, of Blythville, Ark. The report of J. E. Ellison, secretary and treasurer showed the association to be in better financial condition than ever before.

Attorney Indicted for Murder.

Newberry, S. C., Nov. 17.—The grand jury of Saluda county, has returned a "true bill" in the case of the state vs. Eugene S. Blease, indicted for the murder of Joe Ben Coleman, his brother-in-law, several months ago. Both men were prominent citizens of Saluda. Blease is one of the foremost attorneys of that bar and is now serving his first term in the state senate. Coleman was formerly a member of the state constabulary, and a prominent merchant of Saluda.

Big Fire in Albany, N. Y.

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 17.—Fire today destroyed the stock in one of the two temporary stores opened by the John C. Myers company after the collapse of their building last August, when thirteen people were killed and upward of thirty injured. The Meyers people say their loss will probably exceed $250,000 and the building, owned by the estate of A. B. Van Gansbeck, is practically a total loss, upward of $40,000.

Unemployed Men Cause Uneasiness.

Tokio, Nov. 17.—The number of unemployed, following the return of the troops from the field, estimated at 700,000 men, is causing uneasiness in view of the industrial depression now prevailing and the unlikelihood of a revival in business in the near future.

Man's Unreasonableness

Is often as great as woman's. But Thos. S. Austin, manager of The Republic of Leavenworth, Ind., was not unreasonable, when he refused to allow the doctors to operate on his wife for female trouble. "Instead," he says, "we concluded to try Electric Bitters. My wife was then so sick she could hardly leave her bed, and five (5) physicians had failed to relieve her. After taking Electric Bitters she was perfectly cured, and can now perform all her household duties." Guaranteed by all druggists. Price 50c.

Difficult to Raise Large Family.

New York, Nov. 17.—The statement that it is increasingly difficult for a working man to raise his family in decency and comfort was made in a paper read by Evangeline O. Booth, commander of the United States forces of the Salvation Army before the New York state conference on charities and corrections yesterday. Miss Booth maintained that where there is actual increase in poverty among the very poor, there is certainly an increasing helplessness among them. The farm colony, the paper read, is natural, the scientific remedy for this terrible evil can be made co-extensive with it.

Denver Jews Raise Funds.

Denver, Colo., Nov. 17.—A meeting of Jewish people at Temple Emanuel last night to protest against outrages on Jews in Russia, resulted in the raising of a fund of $5,000 for the relief of the victims of the outrages. Resolutions were adopted asking President Roosevelt to use his good offices with the Russian authorities to end the attacks on the Jews. The woman's club decided to hold a mass meeting soon after Christmas to raise a fund for the oppressed Jews of Russia.

Four Men to Hang.

Carson City, Nev., Nov. 17.—The state board of pardons which has the case of the four men, Sevens, Gorman, Roberts and Lindeman condemned to hang on Friday, Nov. 17, under advisement for two days, yesterday declined to interfere in the matter and the men will hang for the murder of Jack Walsh, a day laborer, whom they killed on a train between Winnemucca and Reno in this state. The gallows has been made and will accommodate two men at a time. They will be hanged in pairs.

G. B. Burhans Testifies After Four Years.

G. B. Burhans of Carlisle Center, N. Y., writes: "About four years ago I wrote you stating that I had been entirely cured of a severe kidney trouble by taking less than two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure. It entirely stopped the brick dust sediment, and pain and symptoms of kidney disease disappeared. I am glad to say that I have never had a return of any of those symptoms during the four years that have elapsed and I am evidently cured to stay cured, and heartily recommend Foley's Kidney Cure to anyone suffering from kidney or bladder trouble." J. W. McCollum & Co.

A Bird in the Hand.

It is impossible to trace the earliest use of the proverb "A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush," which in various forms of expression is common to many countries.

In middle English we find phrases which have the same purport. Thus in Hille's "Commonplace Book" (1530) we find, "A byrde yn honde ys better than three in the wode," and in Rhode's "Babes' Book," also of early date, "A byrd in hand * * * is worth ten flye at large."

No doubt our modern version springs from these old saws, and it is possible that they may have originated in the quaint remonstrance of one Will Somers, a jester in the court of Henry VIII, to whom Lord Surrey, in gratitude for many a good turn, had given a kingfisher from his aviary. When Surrey sought to recover it, promising to replace it another day, the sapient jester is said to have declined, saying, "I prefer one bird in the hand to two in the bush."

The Seven Sleepers of Ephesus.

The seven sleepers of Ephesus were Constantine, Dionysius, John, Maximian, Malchus, Martinian and Serapion, seven young men, converts to Christianity, who during the persecution of Christians under the Emperor Decius, A. D. 250, refused to bow before an idol set up by the emperor at Ephesus. The story goes that they fled to a cave in Mount Cellon and that Decius, in his rage, ordered all caves in that mountain to be sealed up. Nothing was heard of them for 230 years, when they were discovered by some workmen who were digging foundations. Awakening from their long sleep, they offered coins of such antiquity that the attention of the authorities was attracted. They did not long survive and their bodies were taken for burial in a large stone coffin to St. Victor's church, Marseilles.

Constipation.

Health is absolutely impossible if constipation be present. Many serious cases of liver and kidney complaint have sprung from neglected constipation. Such a deplorable condition is unnecessary. There is a cure for it. Herbine will speedily remedy matters. C. A. Lindsey, P. M., Brownson, Fla., writes, Feb. 12, 1902: "Having used Herbine, I find it a fine medicine for constipation." 50c a bottle. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Strength of Treasury Notes.

A single treasury note measures three and one-eighth inches in width by seven and one-fourth inches in length. It will sustain, without breaking, lengthwise, a weight of forty-one pounds; crosswise, a weight of ninety-one pounds. The notes run four to a sheet, a sheet being eight and one-fourth inches wide by thirteen and one-half inches long. One of these sheets lengthwise will suspend 108 pounds and crosswise 177 pounds. It will be noted that a single note is capable of sustaining, crosswise, a weight of ninety-one pounds, which is twice the amount by nine pounds of the weight the note can sustain lengthwise, while, in the case of the sheet, the crosswise sheet lacks thirty-nine pounds of double the sustaining power of the lengthwise sheet.

Napoleon's First Cause, Mud.

That man is made of mud by spontaneous generation under the sun's heat was the deliberate opinion of Napoleon, first of the moderns, if General Gourgaud can be believed.

Referring to ancient civilizations in the east, Napoleon one day said to Gourgaud:

"All this leads me to think that the world is not so very old, at least, as inhabited by man, and within one or two thousand years I am disposed to accept the chronology appended to the sacred writings. I think that man was formed by the heat of the sun acting upon mud. Herodotus tells us that in his time the slime of the Nile changed into rats and that they could be seen in process of formation."

Cerberus' Three Heads.

The most famous of dogs is Cerberus, who watches the entrance to Tartarus. He has three heads, but Hercules dragged him to earth and Orpheus put him to sleep with his lyre. The original dog cakes were given to Cerberus by the sibyl who led Aeneas through hell. They were made of flour and seasoned with popples and honey. He must have been an opium fiend, as the celestial drug is made from popples. A "sop to Cerberus" was one of these cakes given to the monster by Greeks and Romans as a bribe to let them in without molestation.

Chequers Inn Fire.

The Chequers Inn at Slapstones, near Osmotherly, must be unique among English inns in one respect. It boasts of a fire which for more than a century has never been allowed to go out. The place is a quaint little building, to which many visitors resort on account of its never extinguished fire and the turf cakes baked upon its hearth. It has been in the occupation of one family for over 100 years.

Sluggish Liver a Foe to Ambition.

You cannot accomplish very much if your liver is inactive, as you feel dull, your eyes are heavy and slight exertion exhausts you. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup stimulates the liver and bowels and makes you feel bright and active. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and very pleasant to take. Orino is more effective than pills or ordinary cathartics. Refuse substitutes. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Keep Your Head Clear

And your stomach free from indigestion if you would be happy with your family and your fellow-man.

The surest thing on earth to get a man's system "out of whack" is heavy, soggy bread, which is caused by several reasons: First, the material may not be good; second, the cooking may be poor. The best flour in the world will make the heaviest bread if improperly mixed or cooked. WE USE THE BEST FLOUR and our "long suit" is knowing how to mix and bake it. Our bread does not stay any more than home-made, and in many instances it is so much more palatable.
